Work on the Boat – Wash Up – Have Dessert Splashdown Raft-up 2015 – PLAN B

The Winter Season continues to hang on, making it impossible to wash, wax, paint and launch our Boats. The delayed launches are keeping everyone in the boat yards. So Plan B is going into effect.

PLAN B: Relax and enjoy cake and coffee in the Cutter Marina Rec Room whilst sharing your commissioning ideas and problems.

Not much snow (so far) but really cold, it will be good to be in the boat yard again readying our boats for the 2015 Season. To launch the new sailing season, join us for the 2015 Splashdown Raft-up and show-off your new boat accessories.

.If 'old man winter' decides to put the 'hammer down' one last time making it too uncomfortable; we will change the venue to Cutter Marina, and stay warm in the Rec Room – Plan B
